Preparing for the Word

Our service begins with the Prelude, inviting us to prepare for worship.

Welcome

Meghan K. Gage-Finn

Prelude Praeludium in g minor

Dietrich Buxtehude

Our Life in Christ

One: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

As the morning greeting is offered, please complete the friendship folder found in your pew, and pass it to your neighbor.

*Call to Worship (adapted from Psalm 89)

One: Come, let us sing a new song!

All: Let us sing a song of thanks and praise.

One: Come, let us sing, for God has done wondrous things.

All: God's works are beyond compare.

One: Come, let us sing and worship our God.

*Proclamation Hymn No. 664 Morning Has Broken

Call to Confession

Sarah Brouwer

The congregation is invited to approach God with humility, seeking God's mercy in unison prayer.

Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, our sins and sorrows are too heavy to carry, too real to hide, and too deep to undo. Forgive what our lips tremble to name and what our hearts can no longer bear. Set us free from a past that we cannot change and open to us a future in which we can be changed. May the light of your love open our eyes to the grace that is already calling us home. By your grace, may we grow ever more in your way of justice, mercy, and peace.

Silent Prayer

Worshippers seek God's forgiveness in their own lives.

Assurance of God's Forgiveness (from Romans 8; 2 Corinthians 5)

One: Anyone who is in Christ is a new creation. The old life has gone;

a new life has begun. Friends, hear the good news:

All: In Jesus Christ we are forgiven. Alleluia! Amen.

* Please stand as you are able.

Anthem We Will Walk in Love

Deanna Witkowski

Text: Deanna Witkowski, Lemuel Colon from the Justice Choir Songbook, Vol. 1

We walk in love united in purpose. We join our hands and lift up one voice.

We speak the truth with strength and compassion resounding with hope, with courage and joy.

We cry for peace and rights for all people. We welcome friends from far and near.

We fight for those whose voices are silenced, resisting in faith until all are free.

We dream a world of justice and kindness. We build a bridge creating new paths.

We march with joy as all walk together. Embracing each one, we boldly stand.

Children's Church resumes in the fall. All children are welcome to remain in worship.

Responding to the Word

Hymn No. 372 O for a World

Prayers of the People and the Lord's Prayer

Kelley Jepsen

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Offertory Sentences

Having heard the Word, we now respond in gratitude by giving. Please place your offering in the plate, or use the "I give to Westminster" card in recognition of your generous contributions made online or in another way.

Offertory Lord, Make Me an Instrument of Thy Peace

John Rutter

Text: St. Francis of Assisi

Lord make me an instrument of your peace
Where there is hatred let me sow love
Where there is injury, pardon
Where there is doubt, faith
Where there is despair, hope
Where there is darkness, light
And where there is sadness, joy
O divine master grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console
to be understood as to understand
To be loved as to love
For it is in giving that we receive
it is in pardoning that we are pardoned
And it's in dying that we are born to eternal life
Amen

Prayer of Dedication for the Offerings Received

Hymn No. 80 You Shall Go Out with Joy

Charge and Benediction

The people respond with "Amen."

Passing of the Peace

Since the earliest days of the Christian Church, worshippers have greeted each other with a sign of peace. All are invited to offer a verbal greeting, such as: "Peace be with you."

One: The peace of Christ be with you.

All: And also with you.
